Fifteen hundred shares of the two thousand that will represent the capital stock of the enterprise will be put on the market at once at par value and it is said that the greater portion of it has already been spoken for. It is the intention of the new jockey club to apply for affiliation with the Canadian Racing Associations, the governing body of the Canadian turf. The purses to be given will be on a par with those of the other tracks on the circuit, while a number of stakes will be run at each meeting. When the application is made for affiliation, dates will be asked for by the club for affiliation, dates will be asked for by the club for affiliation, dates will be asked for by the club for next summer to hold meetings following those at Blue Bonnets.

It is not only the intention of the company to conduct racing, but to build an anuscement park and to hold an annual fair during the mount of September each year. The exhibition of live stock, machinery, borse shows, agricultural industries and dairy products will be catered to, with premiums exceeding any ever given in the province of Quebec Durlug the summer months the grounds will be used as a public pirale park.

AUGUST BELMONT'S BAND OF MONEY WINNERS

While enjoying remarkable success in English and Freuch racing August Belmout's horses at home did not shine brightly and fell far below the figures of immediately preceding years in the matter of stable carnings. The fact that the extremely fast horse. Watervale, fell lame early in the racing year and had to be retired made a great difference in the fortunes of the stable, he having stake engagements of which he certainly would have won his share. However, in Rock View he possessed one of the best two-year-oids of the year and Mission proved berself a worthy daughter of Rock Sanii when she won the two-mile Bowie Stakes from Sotemia at Pimlico in a grandly contested finish. The stable's winners and carnings were as follows:

He was then a real race horse and no mistake. This year he maintained his excellent form of the fall of .1911 and won thirteen races for J. R. Wainwight. Included were the Charleston Hotel Handleap, at Charleston; Memorial Handleap, at Latonia. Cardinal Stakes, at Louisville, and the Latonia Antumn Inangural Hamileap at Latonia, all events of good value and against strong opposition. One of his best performances, and a grand one indeed, was when he took up 118 pounds at Latonia lune 26 and won at a mile and an eighth in such excessively fast time as 1:50%, from Sprite, 160; Starbottle, 110%; Hedge, 160, and Mary Davis, 97. To date the record of this fine old horse is: Year. Age Sts, 1st, 2d, 3d, Unp, Won.

to shine in the stake list, it may be that he will ent some figure where purses are hing in next season. Chinekles, a chestinit son of Chilton and Charite, is the best looker in the stable, and though he was something of a disappointment during the season just closed. Hirsch expects him to develop into a inscription of the force he is next asked to race. He was hred at the Wyndham Walden farm ami in the enriv spring he gave so much promise that Fred Little field confidently expected that he would make a stake colt. But he falled to stay in racing, although showing brilliant speed and scored only twice out of seventeen starts.

War Horn, another in the stable, is a hrown colt by St. Avonicus—Eonic, and he was the best brendwinner of the establishment the past season. He has picked up since being thrown out of training.

Big Dipper, a bay filly by Astronomer—Heien O'C., did not come into the stable until late in the fail, but she won several races for Mr. Hirsch, Sie is small, but knows how to run, and it is prohabithat she will fill out considerably during her period of iddeness.

is small, but knows how to run, and it is prohabitat she will fill out cousiderably during her period of idleness.

Jouquit, a bay filly by Peter Pan—Jessant, is a filly that did not show to advantage during the season because she was of such a nervous disposition that she would "wash" away in the paddock. On trials she should have been probably the best in the harn, but her nervousness could never be cured. She may settle down as a result of being away from the races for the winter.

Marie T., a filly by Ogneti—Marlti, is a racy looking filly that did not have a real chance during the past season. She was on the alling list most of the time and it is certain that when she is built up by her rest she will earn her way.

The other member of the stable is a yearling brown filly by Heno—Betty Vincent. She is a parteniarly shapely youngster.

"Snapper" Garrison has decided he does not want to go to Venezuein to train horses. When E. Sucre was buying horses to ship to South America Garrison all but closed a contract to do the training, but he finally decided that Venezueia is too far away. As a substitute former jockey Wrispen, who is under the ban by reason of a ruling at Juarez, was accepted. Wrispen will ride as well as train the horses, according to his contract.

John Dowers is making preparations to race the J. L. Holland horses at Charleston. He is in New York for the holitary and is confident that Mr. Pons and his associates will be nhie to conduct the meeting.

JUAREZ MEETING PROSPERS

HIGH WATER MARK OF SEASON REACHED YES-TERDAY IN RESPECT TO LAYERS.

Thirteen Bookmakers Cut In and Liberal Odds Are Laid-Two Pavorites Numbered Among Winners-Some Close Finishes.

Ei l'aso, Tex.. December 24.—Two first choices were aniong the winners at the Juarez track this afternoon. None of the purses went to outsiders. The racing was well contested throughout and furnished good finishes. The ring took on an added appearance of activity with thriteen bookmakers in line and the odds were correspondingly liberal. The crowd was one of the best of the meeting.

The sport is gaining raphily in favor here daily. Today's wagering was the largest in volume of any day since the opening of the meeting.

Bob Lynch, an in and out runner, won the fifth race, coming from the rear in the stretch drive. Garland, a choicely hred filly that has been racing in the west this season, started in the third race for the first time in the colors of W. G. Jenkins, and raced away from her opposition from the rise of the barrier. She was well supported in the betting and never left the outcome in doubt. Orperth, which has raced consistently here, won the second race.

Jockey Taylor, who had the mount on King Stalwart, was taken suddenly ill and his engagements for the rest of the day were cancelled.

Swede Sam caused a delay of ten minutes in the fifth race by rearing up in the paddock and breaking his bridde.

Bookmakers Joe Binme, Max Wolfgang and the ring. Gene Elrod, the ring manager, arranged to have this cut-in cover six days and the same arrangement will apply over the new year.

SOME OF "FARMER BILL'S" STORIES.

SOME OF "FARMER BILL'S" STORIES.

W. O. Scully has more of those "that reminds me" stories than most any one that ever graced a race track paddock. In the Jockey Club offices yesterday be sprung one on Joseph E. Davis, who had asked him how his lorses were doing at Benning. Scully had just came back from Washington for the Christmas holidays.

"Matt Brady writes me that my horses are doing mighty weil," said Mr. Davis, "What do you think of them?"

"Yes, they are doing mighty weil," admitted Scully, "but don't think that they are going to win all the races.

"You know old John Haunigan once told Colonel Clay that he was going to win all the races. It was in 1870 when Fonso and Luke Blackburn were two-year-olds. Colonel Clay came down from Lexington with a book of the meeting and asked Hannigan to look it over and see just what he thought of it. John started with the first race and he went right through that look naming the horse that was going to win each purse. The last day there was a consolation race for horses that had not won at the intenting. When he came to it he said: "Why. Colonel we won't have anything to start in that rane."

"We all went up to Lexington from Paris and walked seventcen horses that were to win all the races that twenty-one miles. The first day Hannigan started three and all three were beaten. The second day he started two and they were both beaten. Along about the third day he put boys on about ten of the lot and sent them hack to the farm. "Friday we put up Isaac Murphy and managed to win a purse. Saturday we had all the horses we needed for the consolution race—but we were beaten.

"Don't think your horses are going to win all the races—it cam't be done."

The reintire qualities of what go to make up a good two-year-old were under discussion one afternoon and after Bob Holioway. Bob Rose, one of the Scoggins, Kimball Patterson and a number of others had about thoroughly threshed out the question one of them asked Scully for his opinion.

"This had about training horses," said Scully nitgger cook san it wo you going to pay for him? asked stover.

"Why, I'll give you $50 down and work the rest out," said the coon.

"This nigger was working for $20 a month, stover sold him the horse and then charged him $1.50 a day to train him. I've been trying ever since to higher out just bow long it took the nigger to pay for the borse."

And it was in 1899, when King Barteycorn won the Crescent City Derby at New Oricans, in which Kentucky Colonel was favorite, that Scully announced from the lawn that to the best of blg knowledge and helief Kentincky Colonels had been trying to beat John Barleycorn for more than a hundred years. He says it still goes.—New York Telegraph.
